Spirit of Prophecy:

“However much a shepherd may love his sheep, he loves his sons and daughters more. Jesus is not only our shepherd; He is our ‘everlasting Father.’ And He says, ‘I know Mine own, and Mine own know Me, even as the Father knoweth Me, and I know the Father.’ John 10:14, 15, R. V. What a statement is this!--the only-begotten Son, He who is in the bosom of the Father, He whom God has declared to be ‘the Man that is My fellow’ (Zech. 13:7),--the communion between Him and the eternal God is taken to represent the communion between Christ and His children on the earth!” {EGW, DA 483}

Jingkylli kaba 4 (Isaiah 44:6):

Spirit of Prophecy:

“As the world's Redeemer, Christ was constantly confronted with apparent failure. He, the messenger of mercy to our world, seemed to do little of the work He longed to do in uplifting and saving. Satanic influences were constantly working to oppose His way. But He would not be discouraged. Through the prophecy of Isaiah He declares, "I have labored in vain, I have spent My strength for nought, and in vain: yet surely My judgment is with the Lord, and My work with My God. . . . Though Israel be not gathered, yet shall I be glorious in the eyes of the Lord, and My God shall be My strength." It is to Christ that the promise is given, "Thus saith the Lord, the Redeemer of Israel, and His Holy One, to Him whom man despiseth, to Him whom the nation abhorreth; . . . thus saith the Lord: . . . I will preserve Thee, and give Thee for a covenant of the people, to establish the earth, to cause to inherit the desolate heritages; that Thou mayest say to the prisoners, Go forth; to them that are in darkness, Show yourselves. . . . They shall not hunger nor thirst; neither shall the heat nor sun smite them: for He that hath mercy on them shall lead them, even by the springs of water shall He guide them." Isa. 49:4, 5, 7-

“No one need look upon the sin against the Holy Ghost as something mysterious and indefinable. The sin against the Holy Ghost is the sin of persistent refusal to respond to the invitation to repent.” {FLB 58.8}

Spirit of Prophecy:

“Those who made this charge against Christ were on perilous ground. They were quenching the last ray of light emanating from the throne of God to their prejudiced, benighted souls. Jesus warned them of their danger, saying: “All manner of sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven unto men; but the blasphemy against the Holy Ghost shall not be forgiven unto men. And whosoever speaketh a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him; but whosoever speaketh against the Holy Ghost, it shall not be forgiven him, neither in this world, neither in the world to come.” {ST, October 1, 1896 par. 5}

"By rejecting the light that was shining upon them, by refusing to examine the evidence to see whether the messages were from heaven, the Pharisees sinned against the Holy Ghost. Christ, the world's Redeemer, was in the world. "All things were made by him; and without him was not anything made that was made. In him was life; and the life was the light of men. And the light shineth in darkness; and the darkness comprehended it not. . . . He was in the world, and the world was made by him, and the world knew him not. He came unto his own, and his own received him not." The voice of his Spirit came to them, saying, "This is the Son of God; believe on him." But turning their faces from the light, they refused to listen, choosing, instead, to cultivate their unbelief. Thus the light which, if received, would have been to them a savor of life unto life, rejected, became a savor of death unto death,--death to spirituality." {RH, July 27, 1897 par. 2}

"Brother P, you ask if you have committed the sin which has no forgiveness in this life or in the life to come. I answer: I do not see the slightest evidence that this is the case. What constitutes the sin against the Holy Ghost? It is willfully attributing to Satan the work of the Holy Spirit. For example, suppose that one is a witness of the special work of the Spirit of God. He has convincing evidence that the work is in harmony with the Scriptures, and the Spirit witnesses with his spirit that it is of God. Afterward, however, he falls under temptation; pride, self-sufficiency, or some other evil trait, controls him; and rejecting all the evidence of its divine character, he declares that that which he had before acknowledged to be the power of the Holy Spirit was the power of Satan. It is through the medium of His Spirit that God works upon the human heart; and when men willfully reject the Spirit and declare it to be from Satan, they cut off the channel by which God can communicate with them. By denying the evidence which God has been pleased to give them, they shut out the light which had been shining in their hearts, and as the result they are left in darkness. Thus the words of Christ are verified: "If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is that darkness!" For a time, persons who have committed this sin may appear to be children of God; but when circumstances arise to develop character and show what manner of spirit they are of, it will be found that they are on the enemy's ground, standing under his black banner." {Testimonies for the Church, vol. 5, p. 634}

“Never before have the angels listened to such a prayer. They are eager to bear to their loved Commander a message of assurance and comfort. But no; the Father Himself will answer the petition of His Son. Direct from the throne issue the beams of His glory. The heavens are opened, and upon the Saviour's head descends a dovelike form of purest light,--fit emblem of Him, the meek and lowly One. Of the vast throng at the Jordan, few except John discerned the heavenly vision. Yet the solemnity of the divine Presence rested upon the assembly. The people stood silently gazing upon Christ. His form was bathed in the light that ever surrounds the throne of God. His upturned face was glorified as they had never before seen the face of man. From the open heavens a voice was heard saying, "This is My beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased."” {DA 112}1898

Spirit of Prophecy:

What the spirit of prophecy has this to say about it:

Christ has made baptism the sign of entrance to his spiritual kingdom. He has made this a positive condition with which all must comply who wish to be acknowledged as under the authority of the Father, the son, and the holy spirit. Before man can find a home in the church, before passing the threshold of God's spiritual kingdom, he is to receive the impress of the divine name, "The Lord our righteousness." Jer. 23:6... Those who are baptized in the threefold name of the Father, the son, and the Holy spirit, at the very entrance of their christian life declare publicly that they have forsaken the service of satan and have become members of the royal family, children of the heavenly king. They have obeyed the command: "come out from among them, and be ye separate, ... and touch not the unclean thing." and to them is fulfilled the promise: "I will receive you, and will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters." 2 Cor. 6:17, 18. {FLB 145.4}

“Angels of God looked with amazement upon Christ, who took upon Himself the form of man and humbly united His divinity with humanity in order that He might minister to fallen man. It is a marvel among the heavenly angels. God has told us that He did do it, and we are to accept the Word of God just as it reads. And although we may try to reason in regard to our Creator, how long He has had existence, where evil first entered into our world, and all these things, we may reason about them until we fall down faint and exhausted with the research when there is yet an infinity beyond.” {7BC 919.5}

"The Lord Jesus Christ, the divine Son of God, existed from eternity, a distinct person, yet one with the Father. He was the surpassing glory of heaven. He was the Commander of the heavenly intelligences, and the adoring homage of the angels was received by Him as His right. This was no robbery of God. "The Lord possessed me in the beginning of his way," He declares, "before his works of old. I was set up from everlasting, from the beginning, or ever the earth was. When there were no depths, I was brought forth; when there were no fountains abounding with water. Before the mountains were settled, before the hills was I brought forth; while as yet he had not made the earth, nor the fields, nor the highest part of the dust of the world. When he prepared the heavens, I was there: when he set a compass upon the face of the depth."" {RH, April 5, 1906 par. 7}

“God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them; and hath committed unto us the word of reconciliation. 2 Cor. 5:19. All through the pages of sacred history, where the dealings of God with His chosen people are recorded, there are burning traces of the great I AM. . . In all these revelations of the divine presence, the glory of God was manifested through Christ. Not alone at the Saviour's advent, but through all the ages after the fall and the promise of redemption, "God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself." Christ was the foundation and center of the sacrificial system in both the patriarchal and the Jewish age. Since the sin of our first parents, there has been no direct communication between God and man. The Father has given the world into the hands of Christ, that through His mediatorial work He may redeem man, and vindicate the authority and holiness of the law of God. All the communion between heaven and the fallen race has been through Christ. It was the Son of God that gave to our first parents the promise of redemption. It was He who revealed Himself to the patriarchs. Adam, Noah, Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, and Moses understood the gospel. They looked for salvation through man's Substitute and Surety. . . .” {TMK 102.2}

All that the human agent can know of God to the saving of the soul, is the measure of the knowledge of the truth as it is in Jesus, to which he can attain; for Christ is he who represents the Father. The most wonderful truth to be grasped by men is the truth, “Immanuel, God with us.” Christ is the wisdom of God. He is the great “I AM” to the world.” {ST, December 12, 1895 par. 5}

“With solemn dignity Jesus answered, “Verily, verily, I say unto you, Before Abraham was, I AM.” Silence fell upon the vast assembly. The name of God, given to Moses to express the idea of the eternal presence, had been claimed as His own by this Galilean Rabbi. He had announced Himself to be the self-existent One, He who had been promised to Israel, “whose goings forth have been from of old, from the days of eternity.” Micah 5:2, margin. Again the priests and rabbis cried out against Jesus as a blasphemer. His claim to be one with God had before stirred them to take His life, and a few months later they plainly declared, “For a good work we stone Thee not; but for blasphemy; and because that Thou, being a man, makest Thyself God.” John 10:33. Because He was, and avowed Himself to be, the Son of God, they were bent on destroying Him.” {EGW, DA 469, 470}

Spirit of Prophecy:

“How can you, oh, how can you grieve your Redeemer? How can you dishonor Him before His angels and before men? How can you grieve the Holy Spirit of God? How can you crucify the Lord of glory afresh, and put Him to open shame? How can you give occasion for Satan and his angels to exult and triumph over those who claim to be loyal subjects of Jesus Christ?” {TM 431.1}

Grieving the redeemer = grieving the Holy Spirit of God. This refers to Christ Jesus for the Spirit is His life.

“The impartation of the Spirit is the impartation of the life of Christ.” {DA 805.3}

“U khrist u pynbna ba hashwa ka jingkiew noh jong, un phah sha ka Balang kum ka jingai ka jingkyntiew burom ka jong u, u Nongpyntngen, u ban shim ia ka jaka jong u. Une u Nongpyntngen u dei U Mynsiem Bakhuid- ka jingim tynrai jong u, ka bor jong ka Balang, ka jingshai jong ka pyrthei. Da U Mynsiem jong u U Khrist u phah ka kynja atiar ka ban khring sha ka jingpyniasuk bad ka bor ban shim noh ia ka pop.” {EGW, RH, May 19, 1904 par. 1}

“Christ declared that after his ascension, he would send to his church, as his crowning gift, the Comforter, who was to take his place. This Comforter is the Holy Spirit,--the soul of his life, the efficacy of his church, the light and life of the world. With his Spirit Christ sends a reconciling influence and a power that takes away sin.” {EGW, RH, May 19, 1904 par. 1}

Kane ka mut ba U Mynsiem Bakhuid u long ka jingim bad ka burom jong u Khrist, ym da uwei pat u long ryngnieng:

“Jesus is seeking to impress upon them the thought that in giving His Holy Spirit He is giving to them the glory which the Father hath given Him, that He and His people may be one in God.” {EGW, 2MR 36, 37}

Kumta U Mynsiem Bakhuid u long ka jingim, ka Mynsiem, ka burom bad ka jingiai don ryngkat ka jong u Jisu Khrist. Kane ka long kata ka jingsngewthuh ha kaba ka Mem White ka ong haba ka kren shaphang U Mynsiem jong U Blei. “U Blei u long u longryngnieng bad u Khrist ruh u long u longryngnieng.” {ISAT 343}. Te kumta U Mynsiem Bakhuid u long u longryngnieng jong U Blei bad jong U Khrist.

“Ma U (U Khrist) un iai don ryngkat ha man ki jaka da u Mynsiem Bakhuid jong u kum uta uba lah ban don lut ha man ki jaka.” {14MR 23} Te kumta “Kane ka thew ia ka jingdon ryngkat u Mynsiem U Khrist ha man ki jaka, uba ju tip kum Uta u Nongpyntngnen.” {14MR 179}, bad kumat “Da U Mynsime U Kpa bad u Khun kin wan bad sah bad phi.” {BEcho, January 15, 1893 par. 8}.

“God is a person and Christ is a person.” {ISAT 343}. Therefore, the Holy Spirit is the person of God and Christ. It is the omnipresence of them; notice “He [Christ] would represent Himself as present in all places by His Holy Spirit, as the Omnipresent.” {14MR 23} Thus, “This refers to the omnipresence of the Spirit of Christ, called the Comforter.” {14MR 179}, and so “By the Spirit the Father and the Son will come and make their abode with you.” {BEcho, January 15, 1893 par. 8}.

“Lada uno uno ruh u ieit ia nga, un sumar ia ka ktien jong nga: te Uta U Kpa jong nga un ieit ia u. bad ngin iawan ha u, bad ngin iasah bad u” Ioannis 14:23

It is through the Spirit that we have a bond with the Father and Son “The sinner then stands before God as a just person; he is taken into favor with Heaven, and through the Spirit has fellowship with the Father and the Son.” {3SM 191}

“U Ioannis, ha ka jingioh mad ia ka jingkyrmen, u ong: “Ia kata kaba ngi Ja iohi bad ngi ia iohsngew ngi iathuh shai ha phi. ba ma phi ruh phin ioh ka jingiasyllok lem bad ngi: bad kata ka jingiasyllok de ka jong ngi ka long lem bad U Kpa bad U Khun jong u ruh U Jisu Khrist.” U khrist lyngba U Mynsiem, u trei ban ialam ia ki biew baroh sha u; bad ma ngi, ki biew kiba long ki atiar jong u ngi dei ban ia snoh kti lem bad u ban iai trei ryngkat bad U Khrist; kadei ka bor jong u kaba wan rah ia ka bor ha ka jingtrei jong ngi.” {RH, January 6, 1891 par. 10}

“John, in the assurance of a living experience, said: “That which we have seen and heard declare we unto you, that ye also may have fellowship with us: and truly our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ.” Christ, through his Spirit, is working to draw men to himself; and we, the human agents, are to co-operate with Christ; it is his power that gives efficiency to our labors.” {RH, January 6, 1891 par. 10}

Spirit of Prophecy:

“We have only one channel of approach to God. Our prayers can come to him through one name only,-that of the Lord Jesus our advocate. His Spirit must inspire our petitions. No strange fire was to be used in the censers that were waved before God in the sanctuary. So the Lord himself must kindle in our hearts the burning desire, if our prayers are acceptable to him. The Holy Spirit within must make intercessions for us, with groanings that cannot be uttered.” {EGW, RH, February 9, 1897 par. 10}.
